Rationale for Economic Assumptions

- Discount rate – The discount rate assumptions are prescribed by law.
- Salary increases – The salary increase assumption was selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to October 2015, and reflects management's expectation that wages will continue to increase at a similar rate in future years.
- Expected investment return – The expected rate of return on plan assets is based on the median simulated investment return using capital market assumptions published in Mercer Investment Consulting's Capital Markets Outlook for the plan's target asset mix, net of expenses assumed to be paid from plan assets for passive investment management.
- Expenses – This assumption is based on prior year experience, adjusted for expected changes in the upcoming year.

Schedule SB, Part V — Statement of Actuarial Assumptions/MethodsRationale for Demographic Assumptions

- Mortality - The mortality assumptions are prescribed by law.
- Withdrawal – The withdrawal rates were selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to October 2015. The plan sponsor believes that this period will be representative of anticipated future experience. The assumption is reviewed annually for reasonability.
- Retirement age – The retirement rates were selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to October 2015. The plan sponsor believes that this period will be representative of anticipated future experience. The assumption is reviewed annually for reasonability.
- Benefit commencement age – The benefit commencement age for vested termination was selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to October 2015. The plan sponsor believes that this period will be representative of anticipated future experience. The assumption is reviewed annually for reasonability.
- Form of payment – The form of payment assumptions were selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to September 2015. The plan sponsor believes that this period will be representative of anticipated future experience. The assumption is reviewed annually for reasonability.
- Salary increase and target bonus - The salary increase and target bonus assumptions were selected based on an experience study completed in 2016 of data from October 2010 to October 2015. The plan sponsor believes that this period will be representative of anticipated future experience. The assumption is reviewed annually for reasonability.

Actuarial methods

An actuarial valuation is only a snapshot of a plan's estimated financial condition at a particular point in time; it does not predict the plan's future financial condition or its ability to pay benefits in the future and does not provide any guarantee of future financial soundness of the plan. Over time, a plan's total cost will depend on a number of factors, including the amount of benefits the plan pays, the number of people paid benefits, the period of time over which benefits are paid, plan expenses and the amount earned on any assets invested to pay benefits. These amounts and other variables are uncertain and unknowable at the valuation date.

Because modeling all aspects of a situation is not possible or practical, we may use summary information, estimates, or simplifications of estimates to facilitate the modeling of future events in an efficient and cost-effective manner. We may also exclude factors or data that, if used, in our judgment, would not have significantly affected our results. Use of such simplifying techniques does not, in our judgment, affect the reasonableness of valuation results for the plan.

Valuations do not affect the ultimate cost of the plan, only the timing of when benefit costs are recognized. Cost recognition occurs over time. If the costs recognized over a period of years are lower or higher than necessary, for whatever reason, normal and expected practice is to adjust future cost levels to recognize the entire cost of the plan over time.

Schedule SB, Part V — Statement of Actuarial Assumptions/MethodsActuarial methods for funding*Asset methods

The asset valuation method is an average of the adjusted market value for each year during the last 2 years preceding the valuation date. The adjusted market value is the market value at each determination date adjusted to the valuation date based on actual cash flows and expected interest at the lesser of the expected rate of return and the third segment rate. This amount is adjusted to be no greater than 110 percent and no less than 90 percent of the fair market value, as defined in IRC Section 430.

A characteristic of this asset method is that, over time, it is slightly more likely to produce an actuarial value of assets that is less than the market value of assets than an actuarial value that is greater than the market value.

Participant Methods

Participants or former participants are included or excluded from the valuation as described below:

- Participants included: The plan sponsor provides us with data on all employees as of the valuation date, but only those employees who have completed the plan's eligibility requirements are included in the valuation of liabilities.
- Participants excluded: No actuarial liability is included for nonvested participants who terminated prior to the valuation date. For this purpose, participants with a break in service on the valuation date are treated as terminated participants.
- Disabled participants: The liabilities for participants on long-term disability have been included with the liabilities for active participants.
- Insurance contracts: The plan does not have any insurance contracts.

Minimum Funding Methods

The funding target for minimum funding calculations is computed using the traditional unit credit method of funding. The objective under this method is to fund each participant's benefits under the plan as they accrue. Thus, the total pension to which each participant is expected to become entitled at retirement is broken down into units, each associated with a year of past or future credited service.

A detailed description of the calculation follows:

- The plan's valuation date is the beginning of the plan year.
- An individual's funding target is the present value of future benefits based on credited service and average pay as of the beginning of the plan year, and an individual's target normal cost is the present value of the benefit expected to accrue in the plan year. If multiple decrements are used, the funding target and the target normal cost for an individual are the sum of the component funding targets and target normal costs associated with the various anticipated separation dates.
- This plan provides disability and death benefits that are only partially based on a participant's accrued benefit or years of service. This benefit is allocated to funding target based on the accrued benefit on the valuation date plus a portion of the excess of the benefit over the accrued benefit multiplied by the ratio of the participant's service at the beginning of the plan year to their service at each decrement age. This benefit is allocated to target normal cost based on the proportionate benefit attributable to the increase in the participant's service and compensation during the plan year.

- The plan's target normal cost is the sum of the individual target normal costs, and the plan's funding target is the sum of the individual funding targets for all participants under the plan.

Credited service will cease on September 30, 2019, March 31, 2022, or March 31, 2028 depending on participant elections to remain in the plan. Schedule SB, Part V — Summary of Plan Provisions

- Average monthly compensation Average monthly compensation is the total plan compensation during a considered period divided by the number of months in the considered period. The considered period is the 60 highest consecutive completed months within the last 120 calendar months which produce the highest average. Only months during salaried employment are included in the considered period.

Average monthly compensation is calculated as of the earlier of 1) transfer to scheduled service, 2) participant plan freeze date, and 3) termination date.

Normal retirement

- Eligibility A participant who retires on or after age 65.
 - Benefit Benefits are determined at the earlier of 1) transfer to scheduled service, 2) participant plan freeze date, and 3) termination date
An annuity, payable for life, equal to the larger of (i) or (ii):
 - (i) 0.3% of average monthly compensation, plus
0.5% of average monthly compensation above the Social Security integration level, plus
0.6% of average monthly compensation above the Railroad Retirement integration level.
 - (ii) $37.00 per month per year of credited service.
This amount is multiplied by credited service, limited to 40 years
The Social Security integration level is covered compensation under RR 71-446 for a 65-year-old in the calendar year of determination, rounded to the nearest $600. The Railroad Integration level is the five-year average of the Tier II wage bases for the five full calendar years preceding the participants' termination, rounded to the nearest $60.
Participants in the prior plan(s) are fully grandfathered if they are at least age 45 as of October 1, 1996.

Early retirement

- Eligibility After age 55, provided the participant has completed ten years of vesting service.

Schedule SB, Part V — Summary of Plan Provisions

- Benefit
The annuity, payable immediately for life, is determined as for normal retirement, considering service and compensation to actual early retirement date. At the employee's request, a reduced pension is payable as early as his early retirement date using the table below. For purposes of early retirement eligibility and early retirement reductions, benefit service is allowed to grow past the participants' freeze date until the earlier of 1) transfer to scheduled service and 2) termination date.
A supplement is payable until Railroad Retirement or Social Security benefit eligibility. The amount of the supplement is $15 per month per year of credited service, to a maximum of 20 years and frozen as of July 1, 2010. This amount is not reduced for early commencement.

- Eligibility
An employee who meets the requirements for a normal pension and retires after his normal retirement date.

Deferred vested

- Eligibility
A participant is eligible for a deferred vested benefit at any age, provided he has completed at least five years of vesting service.
- Benefit
The annuity is computed as for normal retirement considering service and compensation to date of termination. Reduction is the same as for early retirement.

Schedule SB, Part V — Summary of Plan ProvisionsDisability

|---------------|---|
| • Eligibility | A participant is eligible for disability benefits at any age, provided he retires because of total and permanent disability. |
| • Benefit | The annuity, commencing on normal or early retirement date, is payable for life. The monthly amount is computed as for normal retirement considering average monthly compensation and plan integration levels at the date of disability, and service projected during the period of disability. Effective October 1, 2012, any participant who starts LTD after September 30, 2014, will be granted only one additional year of service, unless they are already past their pension freeze date in which case no additional service will be granted. |

Pre-retirement death

|---------------|--|
| • Eligibility | The eligible spouse of an employee who dies after becoming vested is entitled to a benefit payable for life. |
| • Benefit | The benefit, commencing on the first of the month following the later of the date of death or the date the employee would have been eligible for early retirement, is 50% of the accrued benefit determined as for early retirement considering compensation and service to date of death, then reduced for the earlier payment and the survivor protection. |

Form of benefits

|---|--|
| • Automatic form for unmarried participants | Single Life Annuity |
| • Automatic form for married participants | 50% Joint and Survivor Annuity |

| • Maximum compensation | Compensation for any 12-month period used to determine accrued benefits may not exceed the limits in IRC Section 401(a)(17) for the calendar year in which the 12-month period begins. This limit is indexed annually. For 2019, the limit is $280,000. |
| • Maximum benefits | Annual benefits may not exceed the limits in IRC Section 415. This limit is indexed annually. For 2019, the limit is $225,000. |

Schedule SB, Part V — Summary of Plan ProvisionsBenefits Included or Excluded

Unless noted below, all benefits provided by the plan, as restated and amended through Amendment 32, are included in this valuation:

- Most recent plan amendments included: Amendment 36 signed September 26, 2019, is included because it was adopted by the valuation date and is effective by the end of the plan year.
- Late retirement increases:
 - Active participants: The plan applies late retirement actuarial increases for all participants who defer retirement beyond their normal retirement date and this valuation includes those increases.
 - Deferred vested participants: Current deferred vested participants over normal retirement age are valued including the late retirement actuarial increase.
- Internal Revenue Code limitations: The limitations of Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) and 401(a)(17) have been incorporated into our calculations.
- IRC Section 416 rules for top-heavy plans: We did not test whether this plan is top-heavy (when the present value of benefits for key employees equals or exceeds 60% of the present value for all participants). However, we expect that the plan is not top-heavy due to the large number of rank-and-file participants; therefore, the funding target and target normal cost do not reflect any liability for top-heavy benefit accruals.

Plan Provisions Specific to FundingAdditional Benefits Included or Excluded

- IRC Section 436 benefit restrictions:
 - Unpredictable contingent event benefits: None.
 - Plan amendments: See above.
 - Prohibited payments: None.
- Unpredictable contingent event benefits: The plan does not have any unpredictable contingent event benefits.
- The valuation does not include an assumption for lump sums under $25,000.

Plan Provision Changes Since Prior Valuation

- Maximum compensation amounts, maximum benefit amounts under IRS rules and integration levels were updated from 2018 to 2019.
- The plan is now closed to new participants hired on or after April 1, 2019.
- Current actives are now valued until their freeze dates. Active participants were given the choice to stay in the pension for a period of time or move to an enhanced 401k. Participants who elected to stay in the plan will be eligible for continued accruals through March 31, 2022, if their age plus service was less than 60 points, or March 31, 2028 if their age plus service was 60 points or greater.
